

UNDERWOOD PREDICTS SPLIT FOR REPUBLICANS STINSON IS URGED TO PROTECT EL PASO, TEX.

ALABAMA CONGRESSMAN TAKES AT PHILADELPHIA ON COL ROOSEVELT'S SPEECH

Philadelphia Feb 23. That the speech of Col Theodore Roosevelt at the Ohio constitutional convention means a split in the republican party with the Colonel is a candidate for the presidential nomination in opposition to President Taft was the declaration in this city yesterday afternoon of Oscar W. Underwood of Alabama, democratic leader of the House of Representatives.

Without commenting upon the logic of the Roosevelt declaration, Congressman Underwood expressed the conviction that the former President would follow his bet and that this quoted declaration from his indicates a fight to the finish between him and his successor.

Mr. Underwood declared that notwithstanding the attitude of the President the Democrats in the House within a few weeks will pass a sugar revision tariff bill and a wool tariff revision bill.

Addressing the Chamber of Commerce, the Alabama Congressman who himself is a candidate for the democratic presidential nomination, pledged in this city to make addresses at the annual dinner of the Order of the Cincinnati last night. He was accompanied by United States Senator Bankhead from Alabama, his campaign manager, and Joseph P. Lloyd, representative in Congress from Missouri.

The Roosevelt speech has created wide comment and discussion among members of Congress in Washington. Underwood is to criticize the position Colonel Roosevelt has taken, but in everything he said he showed direct allusion to the position this occupies in the mind of Taft.

His speech, unique both in its manner and in its content, for the presidential nomination in the presidential election of 1924, has indicated that he will follow his bet and when he made such a statement he meant that he would follow it to a finish.

Wide Split in Party

The only consequence can be a hard fight for the nomination and a wide split in the republican party. Mr. Underwood would say little regarding his own candidacy for the presidential nomination except that he expected to receive a solid delegation from his own state and from several other states in the south.

He would not forecast his probable chances of success in carrying the nomination. His campaign has been launched by friends, he said, and was being conducted by them. He had been too busy in Congress to pay his attention to himself.

When told that President Taft was of the University of Virginia had said every alumnus of that institution was supporting Governor Wilson of New Jersey for the democratic nomination, Congressman Underwood smiled.

They have no money, time and patience and are so comfortable and stylish. And I am grateful to you for recommending them to me and my entire family."

QUEER MARRIAGE HISSTLES IN PARTING OF COUPLE.

Atlanta, Ga., Feb. 22.—A few months ago Miss Edith Burnett, who appears to be about 10 years of age, moved to Atlanta from Cincinnati with her mother. Shortly after arriving here the older woman died, and Miss Burnett became a lonely woman in a home all by herself.

One day, early in February, a good looking young chap, neatly dressed, appeared at her door and said he had a letter of introduction to Miss Burnett from an Ohio lawyer. He seemed to know all about the family and he was received very graciously by the spinster.

He said his name was George Griffin. He almost immediately urged Miss Burnett to marry him and four days after he first appeared she consented. Dressed up in clothing for which the bride's money paid, he made a brave appearance. Now, it appeared, Miss Burnett had means, and also a house filled with valuable belongings and handsome jewelry.

Eight days after the queer marriage "Griffin" disappeared. His bride made some investigations, and found valuable jewelry missing. A day or two later she received a letter from her husband saying he had gone back to Cincinnati and there was no use looking for him. Further, that his real name was Johnson, and he made some nasty threats. It he attempted to locate him.

The woman has notified the police and descriptions of Griffin-Johnson have been sent out in Cincinnati. Miss Burnett says she is through with matrimony.

COTTON IS SEIZED ON ALLEGEDLY OF SHORT MONEY

Galveston, Miss., Feb. 23. On a writ of replevin issued out by B. M. Brown and Co., and the Security Bank and Trust Company, of Memphis, Tenn., Deputy Sheriff Pat Norton took possession of 144 bales of cotton in the Gulf and Ship Island Railroad yards here this afternoon. It is alleged by the plaintiffs that on February 11 Brown and Co., said the cotton in E. H. and E. L. Carter, these grounds. Several witnesses deposed that their check for $7,812.10 was cashed at the time of the shooting were made by Johnson, who exclaimed, ants did not have the money in the bank.

The declarations filed in the case charge the defendants lucrively ship the cotton from Memphis to Galveston to be loaded on a steamer bound for Bremen, Germany.

HASTINGS TRIAL CONTINUING TODAY.

The trial of Will Hastings, charged with the murder of Conductor Paul Johnson last November, is continuing today at Ozark, and although the witnesses are bringing out no surprising or exciting details, the trial still continues to create much interest. One witness was placed on the stand yesterday and declared that Hastings stated at the time of the killing that Johnson had struck him over the head with a pistol. The prosecution declared that this statement varied from that of the same witness which was given at the time of the preliminary hearing, and tried to impeach him on that point. These grounds. Several witnesses deposed that their check for $7,812.10 was cashed at the time of the shooting were made by Johnson, who exclaimed,
